

JUNIOR JUDGING CONTEST & Recruiting Event

The Arizona National Livestock Show has partnered with collegiate livestock and horse judging programs, from across the nation, to increase focus on the Junior Judging Contests and provide an opportunity for networking and potential college recruitment.

COME SEE US IN PHOENIX, AZ ON DECEMBER 31 FOR:

Rigorous classes
using high quality
animals from across the United States

▪ An opportunity to perform in front of collegiate judging coaches

▪ Buckles awarded to high individual in Junior and Senior division

LIVESTOCK JUDGING

Judging coaches from the following schools have committed to help officiate and take reasons at this year's contest:

- Allen Community College
- Cal Poly San Luis Obispo
- North Eastern Oklahoma A&M University
- Seward County Community College
- University of Arkansas
- University of Arizona

Judging coaches from the following schools have committed to help officiate and take reasons at this year's contest:

- Black Hawk College
- Middle Tennessee State University
- Northeastern Oklahoma A&M
- Texas A&M
- Texas Tech

HORSE JUDGING

ENTRY DEADLINE DECEMBER 10 *No entry fees! **

Thanks to the generous support of The Kemper & Ethel Marley Foundation

 A $100 holding fee (or PO) is required and will be returned if team participates in the contest.*

Find rules and more information at www.aznational.org

Contact us via email at: information@aznational.org or call: 602-258-8568

ARIZONA NATIONAL