Lynn Anderson comes by her horse sense and her singing talents very naturally. Her father rode his own palomino gelding in the Sacramento Sheriff's Posse and her mother is an active songwriter. As soon as she was old enough, Lynn took a firm hold on the best of both worlds. Riding became a way of life and by the end of 1966, she had won over 600 ribbons and trophies and was chosen California State Horse Show Queen. Singing was only a family affair until a record producer heard Lynn's obvious talent and her career as a Country & Western star became an inevitability.

Lynn and her record-producer husband, Glenn Sutton, live on their 60 acre farm outside of Nashville with their daughter. Four-year-old Lisa loves to ride the Quarter Horses Lynn keeps on the show circuit each year.

When Lynn isn't showing the judges her accomplished horsemanship, she's entertaining them and crowds of spectators with her first rate singing. She is as at home in the saddle as she is on the stage. Lynn Anderson was an obvious choice as entertainment to initiate the new image of the 27-year-old Arizona National Livestock Show.

Welcome to America's Stock in '75, the Arizona National Livestock Show.

We believe this year's 27th annual Arizona National will be one of the greatest events of its kind in the country. Some of the finest cattle and horses in the world

Welcome to America's Stock in '75, the Arizona National Livestock Show.

We believe this year's 27th annual Arizona National will be one of the greatest events of its kind in the country. Some of the finest cattle and horses in the world will compete for some of the richest premiums in the Stock Show Business. This year the cattle and horses have been integrated into three Coliseum performances with some fine Country Western entertainment. We hope these performances, along with the rest of the Show and exhibits, will be of great interest to everyone.

Arizonans should be very proud of the great Livestock Industry in our State and our show will give the city folks a chance to see many of these fine animals.

Over 250 young exhibitors have put many months of hard work into their prize steers which will be shown and sold at the Show.

I want to thank the Governor and the Coliseum Board who, along with our hard working members, have made this show possible.

So come on down often and enjoy yourselves during the show.

Sincerely,

Chet E. Johns

THE 1975 ARIZONA NATIONAL LIVESTOCK SHOW is respectfully dedicated to:

HENRY GUDGELL BOICE
1894 —

Henry Boice comes from a long line of Hereford Breeders and his natural love for cattle attracted him to the Arizona National Livestock Show. He became involved with the early stock show when it was in Tucson during the early 1930's. When the show moved to Phoenix, Henry's support moved with it and in 1954 he was elected to the post of Vice-President, which he held for many years. "He never missed a Stock Show," daughter Peg Boice Rubel said, "He really enjoys the fine cattle."

In addition to being an owner of Chiricahua Cattle Company, Boice took time to contribute his talents to the cattle industry and was elected President of the Arizona Cattle Growers Association in 1921 and served until 1927. Again he was selected to serve his fellow stockmen as President of the then American National Livestock Association in 1930.

Son Fred remembers the excitement around the Boice home as the Stock Show time neared, "Dad was eager to get to the Show Grounds to check on last minute details." Boice felt that every Stockman should take in at least one Livestock show a year, if for no other reason than just to compare his stock with the show cattle.

To you Henry G. Boice we dedicate the 1975 Arizona National Livestock Show.

Junior Division Grows Up

The Junior Division has become an extremely popular ANLS event since its inception in 1950 when only 6 head were shown. The first Calf Scramble, held in 1951, did much to encourage youngsters to raise animals for the next show. The price paid for the Grand Champion Steer has grown with the popularity of the event. In 1955 the Grand Champion Steer brought $2 a pound and in 1974 that price shot up to $10 a pound. An interesting sidelight to that phenomenal price came from the young owner Ed Orr from Golden, Colorado. Orr donated $2,800 of the $11,000 he received for his Angus-Limousin steer to the Arizona Boys' Ranch near Chandler, Arizona. In turn, Ford dealer Tex Earnhardt and hay dealer Denny Weinberg, who purchased the steer, donated "Twist" to Gomper's Children's Rehabilitation Center.

1974 CHAMPION SCRAMBLE CALF

GILBERT, AZ

CALF SCRAMBLE

To encourage Junior exhibitors our Directors established a Calf Scramble in 1951. The first contest saw 20 calves caught and that was to be the start of our famous Calf Scramble. Girls were allowed to enter the scrambles last year:

Here's how it works:

Arizona 4-H and FFA members enter the contest through their state offices.

This year 40 contestants were selected and they have been divided into 4 different scrambles with 10 contestants in each scramble.

Five calves are turned out in the arena and the chase is on. Each contestant has an equal chance to catch a calf and must put a halter on it and bring the calf to the starting line to win.

Twenty young people from Arizona will catch a calf this year and start themselves a Market Steer project for next year.

The Arizona National Livestock Show awards each calf catcher a check for $100 to help cover the purchase price. Winners may purchase a steer calf from any source but must make a project out of it returning to show their calf next year at the National.

JUNIOR COLLEGE LIVESTOCK JUDGING CONTEST

The Arizona National Livestock Show will conduct a Junior College Judging contest on Saturday, January 4, for the purpose of stimulating and encouraging livestock students in the proper selection of animals for the capacities and values intended. Who says so?

Reading from left to right that's Everett Brown, Jim Armer, and Stan Turley. Together they've got over 150 years of experience serving the agricultural community.

The point is this: When you talk to any one of these gentlemen at First National Bank of Arizona, you can be assured he knows what he's talking about. Not only as a banker. But as someone who also knows how to turn a dollar with a cultivator or a cow.

And that's really worth knowing.

NATIONAL NOTES

From the Beginning

Change and growth are not foreign to the Arizona National Livestock Show. The Show began back in 1948 when a group of local businessmen banded together under the name of the Phoenix Stock Show. 449 head of Herefords, Angus and Shorthorns were shown that year by 42 exhibitors from 5 states. Memberships were established during the 1951 Show when the name was changed to the Arizona National Livestock Show. 1975 promises a bumper crop of improvements.

Junior Division Grows Up

The Junior Division has become an extremely popular ANLS event since its inception in 1950 when only 6 head were shown. The first Calf Scramble, held in 1951, did much to encourage youngsters to raise animals for the next show. The price paid for the Grand Champion Steer has grown with the popularity of the event. In 1955 the Grand Champion Steer brought $2 a pound and in 1974 that price shot up to $10 a pound. An interesting sidelight to that phenomenal price came from the young owner Ed Orr from Golden, Colorado. Orr donated $2,800 of the $11,000 he received for his Angus-Limousin steer to the Arizona Boys' Ranch near Chandler, Arizona. In turn, Ford dealer Tex Earnhardt and hay dealer Denny Weinberg, who purchased the steer, donated "Twist" to Gomper's Children's Rehabilitation Center.

Horse Show History

The Arizona National Quarter Horse Show goes back 10 years to 1964 when 232 head were entered in the Class "A" Show. The 1974 winners were:

Grand Champion Stallion, Rusty Questionmark, — R.D. Alexander; Minden, Nevada
Grand Champion Mare, Opie's Pride — R.C. Johns; Phoenix, Arizona

1974 Breed Champion Winners

Feeder Steers, Grand Champion Pen — Sam A. Moore, Harrison, Nebraska
Hereford, Champion Bull — Hooper Herefords, Springerville, Arizona
Champion Female — Rocking Chair Ranch, Ft. McKavett, Texas
Angus, Champion Bull — Windy Acres & R.F. Arnoldy, Brenham, Texas
Champion Female — Andy McCurry, Burton, Kansas
Charolais, Champion Bull — Nelson's Charolais, Celina, Texas
Champion Female — Allen & Fitzpatrick Charolais, Palo Cedro, California

Arizona is Cattle Country

The Arizona Cattle Feeders Association, which started in 1934, is the oldest feeders organization in the U.S. Arizona ranks 7th in numbers of cattle on feed. Arizona is the birthplace of the Barzona breed developed on the Bard Ranch.

New for '75

After several years of absence, the Brangus Show Cattle will be back this year competing for $4000 in premium money.

The Carcass Contest has been revised to include judging and display of the top carcasses.

Arizona National Livestock Show Makes History

The owner of the Grand Champion Pen of Feeder Steers will drive home in a new pick-up. That's right! ED FITZGERALD, owner of COURTESY CHEVROLET in Phoenix, has donated 6 months free use of a brand new Chevrolet pick-up to some lucky feeder winner.
